

Please do not take away Wisconsin's state do-not-call list. It works well, and it's what Wisconsin residents want. Instead of making our state law leaker, the FCC should look at strengthening the federal law.